

ADMINISTRATIVE POSITIONS

POLICY

The Fitzgerald Board of Education encourages a district administrator to be an instructional leader within the school community.

PROCEDURE

To be a building administrator (excluding non-academic administrators: i.e., business, operations) an educator must have received a Masters Degree or higher in Educational Leadership Administration or Principalship or completed a minimum of eighteen (18) credits in administrative courses within a program approved by the superintendent. If appointed to an administrative position with eighteen (18) credits, the individual is expected to continue and complete the administrative degree program within two (2) years.
