

PARTIES AND HOLIDAY OBSERVANCES POLICY

The Board believes that some holidays have an association with significant events and should be a part of the educational process. Further, that classroom observance through parties may be conducted with due consideration to the frequency and duration and with regard to class time consumed. Parents may reserve the right to exclude their children from classroom parties for religious or personal reasons.